

RELIGIOUS TOUR

In nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti

Fátima Land of Faith. In the very same place where for centuries the Shiites venerated the apparition of Fatimah Muhammad's daughter, a majestic and miraculous sanctuary was erected following the apparitions of Our Lady to three little shepherds in 1917. It has been visited four times by three Popes and the three children have been canonized being today a place of pilgrimage for millions of faithful Catholics

Ecumenical Temple of Miranda do Corvo is 13.4 meters height, invoking Jerusalem's Temple of Solomon also with its corners oriented to the four cardinal points. On the façades we find printed three words and three capital letters: "Goodness" (M), "Moral" (R) and "Truth" (J), It is open to all beliefs and integrated in Lousã Hills amazing scenery.

Monastery of Jerónimos, one of the most expressive monuments of Lisbon, classified World Heritage and whose church is dedicated to Our Lady (Santa Maria) of Bethlehem.

Nazaré, in the same place where world's biggest surfable waves are found we also find the devotion to Our Lady of Nazaré that began with a famous apparition and miracle. In Brazil this devotion has a great expression in Belém do Pará with one of the largest Catholic processions in the world, annually gathering over two million people.

