

Évora – World Heritage

City of an outstanding beauty, embraced by its fortress walls

133Km separate us from this city filled with historic memories in each street, each home, each inhabitant...Its squares and monuments tell us national history, religion and culture. The archaeological landscape presents monuments, such as the Cromlech dos Almendres and the Anta Grande do Zambujeiro.

Romans left several signs of their passage, from which the Roman temple, known as "Templo de Diana", stands out.

THE CHAPEL OF BONES bears a painted rhyme reminding visitors of their own mortality

TEMPLO DE DIANA is a remarkably well-preserved Roman temple in the center of Évora. SÉ CATHEDRAL of Évora is one of the most emblematic monuments of the city.

The ALMENDRES CROMLECH consists of 96 standing stones arranged in an oval; it dates from 5000-4000 BC.

ARRAIOLOS CASTLE and village stand out for its Carpets, with centuries of history, hand embroidery by generations of needle workers.

ALENTEJO is particularly suited to the production of typical wines of exceptionally high quality. It is dotted with vast vineyards over extensive plains.

Visit vineyards and cellars, taste scrumptious wines and delicious regional food. Know all these wonderful and amazing places.